Bayview Catering Director, Kelly Young, grew up in Michigan where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Food and Nutrition at Michigan State University. She moved to Washington State when her husband was stationed here with the Air Force. She and her husband and two daughters now happily call Olympia home. Kelly enjoys Mediterranean food, but a meal featuring filet mignon is her favorite.

Kelly's parents chose food service as their vocation and Kelly chose a similar path. She has worked at Bayview Catering for a number of years; her first catering job with the company was an employee event downtown Olympia. Since then she has catered hundreds of events!
