"Summer afternoon – summer afternoon: to me those have always been the two most beautiful words in the English language."

- Henry James

Ah, the promise of summer. More than any other season, summer seems to summon daydreams of anticipation – the bright days, the warm, lingering evenings, the vacations to locations near or far, the swimming, the projects that need finishing, or maybe just a few idle hours for oneself. For me, I think that feeling comes from childhood when at the start of summer, the possibilities seemed limitless, and it felt as though it might never come to an end. It's funny how that feeling never really goes away.

Indeed, those feelings are for before summer starts because once it gets started, it goes by in a flash! My own summer is filled with annual family trips, visiting with our kids, having friends over for dinner, working on house projects, and, of course, teaching and overseeing classes and events at BSC! These days, summer means lots of classes out on the deck, weather permitting, and four tasting/pairing events, which I love, love, love! We are beyond lucky to be situated where we are, right at the southernmost tip of the Salish Sea, and we would be silly not to take full advantage of it. Come visit us, take a class, enjoy a dinner or tasting event, and see for yourself. Have a wonderful summer that doesn't disappear too fast!

I hope to see you soon, upstairs in the BSC kitchen,

Leanne Willard
